Director’s Note: We are again pleased to join with the Mountain West Chorale and share this 24th annual Messiah sing-along with you. In 1741 George Frideric Handel was feeling discouraged and thought he was a failure, he thought he was finished composing. Then as he went to work on THE MESSIAH he was lifted from the darkness and largely composed the work in just three weeks. Not only is this just beautiful music from a great composer, but Handel himself humbly said “God has visited me.” he knew he had been inspired. We feel the same way as we perform it, and hope it helps lift you in enjoying this Christmas season. Thank you to the Jordan Oaks Stake and all who have worked so hard to make this evening possible, especially these wonderful musicians for all the time they give in sharing their talents and their love of great, beautiful and enduring music.
